It is available on Checkpoint®, the premier online accounting, auditing and tax research service from Thomson Tax & Accounting.

LINK TO EXPERT EDITORIAL ANALYSIS FROM WG&L AUTHORS –

With SECPlus you can link directly to WG&L® sources that address a particular filing type – so you will have expert commentary and analysis right at your fingertips. You'll be able to quickly see interpretations of filing requirements to ensure that your filings are fully compliant. WG&L sources include interpretive guidance on:

- SEC Compliance
- PCAOB rules and standards
- Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002
- GAAP compliance
- And More

FEATURES AND BENEFITS:

- Find Companies – Search for company filings quickly by full or partial company name, industry classification code or ticker symbol.
- Company Group – Save multiple companies' information for future reference, to save time on your next project.
- Links within filings – Link to interpretive guidance and to source materials from different SEC form types. You can also research a topic in the WG&L library and then link out to sample SEC filings of interest.
- E-mail notification of new filings of interest, delivered twice daily to your mailbox.
- Find More – Use this comparison tool to move quickly from one company's filing item, such as Management's Discussion and Analysis, to the same item for other companies of interest.
- Chart and compare company financial data for a complete picture – Use this interactive charting tool to view company financial data and to compare balance sheets, income statements, cash flow items or financial ratios among filers. You can also link from company financials to original filings and export financial tables for future use.
- SECPlus Filings Highlights – Timely articles cover recent and amended filings of interest. You'll be able to link from articles to the relevant filings discussed, so you can stay up-to-date on current trends in the regulatory environment.
